On April 18, 2022, the United States Probation Office submitted a Violation Report and Request for Summons alleging Defendant violated his term of supervised release by consuming methamphetamine, cannabinoids, and cocaine on multiple dates. On May 6, 2022, the United States Probation Office filed a Notice of a Supplemental Violation Report alleging Defendant violated his supervised release by consuming methamphetamine, cannabinoids, and cocaine on multiple dates. In addition, the report alleged Defendant failed to appear for numerous urinalysis testing dates. On June 21, 2022, the United States Probation Office filed a Notice of Supplemental Violations alleging Defendant violated his supervised release by

ORDER REVOKING RELEASE

01 consuming methamphetamine and cocaine, failing to notify the probation officer of a change in 02 residence, and failing to appear for multiple urinalysis testing dates. Dkt 61, 65, 80.

03 On June 21, 2022, a status hearing was held. The government and United States
04 Probation office sought revocation of the Defendant's supervised release. Defendant sought
05 continued release on conditions.

06 Defendant has missed a total of ten call-ins for the drug line between May 26 and June 07 17, 2022. Defendant has missed a total of four in-person urinalysis tests. Additionally,
08 Defendant failed to notify the Probation Officer of a change of residence and has been non-
09 responsive to Probation Office efforts to reach him to address a recent positive urinalysis test.
10 Defendant's drug use is escalating despite ongoing treatment.

11 Based upon the evidence set forth in the Violation Reports and presented at the Status
12 Hearing, the Court finds that there are no conditions or combination of conditions which will
13 assure that Defendant will appear and will not pose a danger to other persons, if released again;
14 and further finds that Defendant is unlikely to abide by any condition or combination of 15 conditions set by the Court.

16 It is therefore ORDERED that Defendant's release is REVOKED, and that:

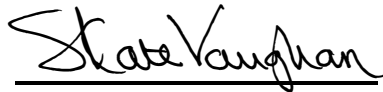

- 17 1. Defendant shall be detained pending the evidentiary hearing in this matter, and committed 18 to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility;
- 19 2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- 20 3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person 21 in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the
